DESCRIZIONE PRODOTTO

This bedside lamp with a modern design is handmade. The base of the lamp, with its warm, enveloping colours, has been coloured using watercolour and acrylic techniques, enhancing the natural grain of the wood. The orange shade adds a touch of liveliness and contemporary style, perfect for modern or rustic settings.

Key features:

- Natural and sustainable material: Spruce wood . Each lamp is a unique and original piece, as the natural imperfections of the wood contribute to its uniqueness.
- Handcrafted finish: Hand-turned with a carnauba wax finish, a natural wax that creates a hard, glossy protection. This type of wax is approved by CE regulations, guaranteeing a safe and high-quality product.
- Unique piece: Each lamp is different, thanks to the handcrafting and naturalness of the wood. Although similar, no two lamps will ever be identical, guaranteeing authenticity and value to each product.
- Unique colours: The warm tones of the base are achieved with watercolour and acrylic colouring techniques, which preserve the natural appearance of the wood, allowing its beautiful grain to be seen.

Dimensions and technical specifications:

- Material: natural spruce
- Finish: Natural carnauba wax
- Colouring: Watercolour and acrylic
- Lampshade: Orange
- 100% Made in Italy

Why choose this lamp: The fir bedside lamp is perfect for those looking for a unique, handcrafted piece that brings a touch of warmth and modernity to the home.

Ideal as a piece of furniture in bedrooms, living rooms or studies, this lamp combines contemporary design and authenticity, giving your home a cosy and refined atmosphere.

Bring a piece of Italian nature into your home with a lamp that tells the story of the forests of Molise and the art of woodworking.
