This lamp is part of the Sumba collection, which also includes wall and table lamps. All products in the collection are made of hand-woven rattan, a natural and environmentally friendly material that lends a warm and welcoming feeling to the room.

The pendant lamp has a diameter of 56 cm, making it large enough to be used as the focal point of a room's lighting. Thanks to its conical shape, the light is diffused evenly over the entire surrounding area, creating a pleasant and relaxing atmosphere.

The Sumba Pendant Lamp can be used in various environments, from the dining room to the living room, or in the bedroom.

Technical features

Rattan is a strong and durable material, but requires some care when cleaning. To keep the Sumba Pendant Lamp beautiful and shiny, simply wipe the outside surface gently with a damp cloth, avoiding the use of harsh chemicals.

The lamp has an E27 socket, which allows the use of LED bulbs. Thanks to LED technology, considerable energy savings and a longer bulb life can be achieved.
