DESCRIZIONE PRODOTTO

The LIL WAVE pendant light interprets light as a light and harmonious movement. Its sinuous shape resembles a light wave propagating through space, creating an elegant and contemporary effect.

Perfect for modern settings, this pendant lamp becomes a true furnishing element, enhancing living rooms, dining tables, kitchen islands, or contract environments with a minimal and refined style.

Made of aluminum, metal, and polycarbonate, it ensures visual lightness and structural solidity. Thanks to the integrated CCT switch, you can choose the most suitable light tone for the room between 3000K (warm light) and 4000K (neutral light).

Available in elegant white and black finishes, LIL WAVE integrates perfectly into various interior design contexts, offering a diffused and uniform light.
