DESCRIZIONE PRODOTTO

The Reloaux ceiling lamp is a lamp with an elegant and contemporary design, designed to enhance environments with discretion and refinement. Its soft and slightly irregular oval shape recalls that of a plectrum, transforming a functional element into a true furnishing accessory.

Made of ceramic, RELOAUX stands out for its delicate and gentle lines, enriched by enveloping details that add character without weighing down the space. It is ideal for lighting entrances, corridors, living rooms, bedrooms, or sophisticated contract environments. It can also be wall-mounted.

The ceiling lamp is equipped with a GX53 socket and supports a 1x12W max LED bulb. The driver is included, while the bulb is not included, allowing you to choose the color temperature that best suits your needs.

Available in black, white, grey, and pink, it easily integrates into various furnishing styles, from modern to minimal, to the most sophisticated environments.
